

BAPTISMS IN LOUISIANA.

Hughes Spur, La., Sept. 25. The words of Paul (1 Cor. 3:6) “I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase,” most aptly portrays some of the circumstances that exist in the mission field. The elders who have labored in the Louisiana conference and who have enjoyed the generous hospitality of John A. Love and family, of Bossier Parish, will rejoice to learn that he and his wife Tiny, and his two daughters Mary Addielee, and Maggie Gertrude Love, were baptized on Sept. 23, Elder James T. Dunn officiating. Elders Frank Bracken and Ephraim Jessop were the first elders to bring the glad tidings of the gospel to this family, about 1898, and they have been very helpful to the elders ever since.

As in Bossier, so in many of the other parishes of Louisiana, the gospel is bearing its fruits, and the work of the Lord is progressing nicely in this part of the Master’s vineyard.

The elders and also the saints who are taking the “News” in this conference, greatly enjoy its reading.

ELDER J. T DUNN.